Biography

I am a fellow in echocardiography, women's cardiovascular health and research at the Ottawa Heart Institute, under the supervision of Dr. Thais Coutinho. I am also completing a PhD degree in clinical sciences, directed by Dr. Marie-Ève Piché and co-directed by Dr. Coutinho and Dr. Marie-Annick Clavel, looking into the differential impact between sexes of cardiometabolic health on the development of cardiovascular diseases. I later aim to implement a clinical and research program within the Quebec Heart and Lung Institute (Quebec City), dedicated to the cardiovascular health of women.
